DRY GOODS! DRY GOODS!

BATS AND CAPS.
BOOTS AND SHOES.

HAVING just returned from the City, with a splendid assortment of Dry Goods, I am now prepared to offer greater inducements to buyers than ever before. My stock consists of every description of Dress Goods, plain and Fancy, Cloth, Cassimeres, Muslins, Loop Skirts, Balmorals, Flannels, Hosiery, Gloves, Trimmings, &c. ALSO.

In connection with my Dry Goods, I have opened in an adjoining room a large stock of HATS AND CAPS, BOOTS AND SHOES, which I will sell very cheap. Children's Shoes as low as 12¢ cents, and other goods at corresponding rates. My stock is well selected, and the most complete yet offered. Give us a call and examine for yourselves. No trouble to show Goods.

SEWING MACHINES.

We are also agent for the Florence Sewing Machine, which is acknowledged to be the best in use. It is the latest improved machine out, having the REVERSIBLE FEED, giving it an advantage over all other machines. Call and see them.

M. SPANGLER.

THE DECKER PIANO FORTE

Warehouses, No. 4 Bleeker Street,

NEW YORK.

The undersigned respectfully invite the attention of the public and trade to these celebrated instruments, manufactured under his especial supervision of the best season'd material.

The Decker Piano has all the latest improvements, such as Full Iron Frame, Overstrung Bass, Ivory Fronts, Bushed Holes, Flat Pins, French Grand Action, and Hammered Capped to Centre of Key Board.

Mr. Decker's practical experience as a manufacturer of Pianos for over twenty-five years is a sufficient guarantee that his instruments are unsurpassed for strength and durability of construction, purity, power, and singing quality of tone.

The Decker Piano Forte is received with the same regard as all others at the celebrated World's Fair.

Where were exhibited instruments from the best makers of London, Paris, Germany, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Boston, and New York; and also at the American Institute for five successive years, the gold and silver medals from both of which can be seen at our ware-room.

By the introduction of improvements we make a still more perfect Piano Forte, and by manufacturing largely, with a strictly cash system, are enabled to offer these instruments in sealed envelopes. Holders are entitled to the articles named in their certificates, upon payment of Ten Dollars, whether it be a Watch worth $750 or one worth less. The return of one of our certificates entitles you to the article named thereon upon payment, irrespective of its worth, and as no article valued less than $10 is named on any certificate, it will at once be seen that this is no lottery, but a straight-forward legitimate transaction, which may be participated in even by the most fastidious!

A single Certificate will be sent by mail, post paid, upon receipt of 25 cents, for $1, eleven for $2, thirty-three and elegant premium for $5, sixty-six and more valuable premium for $10, one hundred and most superb Watch for $16. To agents or those wishing employment this is a rare opportunity. It is a legitimately conducted business. Only authorized by the Government, and open to the most careful scrutiny. Try us.

STABLES,

Washington Street, Gettysburg,

ADJOINING THE EAGLE HOTEL.

The undersigned would respectfully inform the public that he has opened a new LIVERY, SALE AND EXCHANGE STABLE in this place, and is prepared to offer superior accommodations in this line. He has provided himself with Buggies, Carriages, Hacks, Light Wagons, &c., of the latest styles, sufficient to meet the public demand. His horses are all good, without spot or blemish, and perfectly reliable—none of your "old rippers," but in the "40" order.

Riding parties can always be accommodated and comfortable equipments furnished.

Parties, large or small, can get just what they want on the most accommodating terms.

Visitors to the Battle-field politely attended, in grandines, brilliancy and purity of tone.

They are provided with all the modern improvements, French Grand Action, Overstrung Bass, Ivory Front, Harp Pedal, &c., and the most skillful mechanics and best selected materials are employed in their construction.

We can sell cheaper than any other manufacturer, as we do not occupy a room or cases; the expenses of which, in cases, have to be borne by the party. Hence, we invite Professors of Music and Dealers to examine and test our Pianos.

INCORPORATED BY ACT OF ASSEMBLY OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, MARCH 6TH, 1867.

THE Board of Supervisors appointed by the act of incorporation, respectfully announce to the public that the Legislature of Pennsylvania has authorized the raising of funds for the erection, establishment, and maintenance of an Asylum for Invalid Soldiers of the late war, to be built on the Battallion of Gettysburg, and as an inducement to patriotic citizens to contribute to this benevolent object, have authorized the Corporation to subscribe such articles of value and interest, from association with the late war, or any moneys, effects, property, or estate, real or personal, whatever in the State or elsewhere, at such time, or upon such terms, and in such way and manner whatsoever, as to them shall seem fit, any laws of this Commonwealth to the contrary notwithstanding.

The enterprise is cordially recommended by the following named well-known gentlemen:

DR. SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP.
THIS great medicine cured Dr. J. H. Schenck of the Proprietor, of Pulmonary Consumption, when it had assumed its most formidable aspect,
and when speedy death appeared to be near.
His physician pronounced it a case incurable,
but he recovered the use of this same body powerfully. His health was restored in a very short time, and no return of the disease has been apprehended, for all the symptoms quickly disappeared, and his present weight is more than two hundred pounds.

Since his recovery, he has devoted his attention exclusively to the cure of Consumption, and the disease which are usually associated with it,
and the cures effected are indeed wonderful.
Dr. Schenck makes professional visits to several of the larger cities weekly, where he has a large number of patients, and is constantly among to see what improvements that have to be made out of their cartridges, and in a few months healthy, robust persons. Dr. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Mandrake Tincture are generally all required in curing this disease.
The directions are simple, so that any one can make them out for himself. Dr. Schenck's medicine, but for a thorough examination with his prescription, is three dollars.

Please observe, when purchasing that the two likenesses of the Doctor—one when in the last stage of consumption, and the other as he now is,
in perfect health—are on the Government.

Sold by all Druggists, and Chemists, $1 per bottle, $1.50 per half dozen. Letters for advice should always be directed to Dr. Schenck's Post Office, No. 15 North 5th Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Perry Davis' Pain Killer.

It is remarkable to speak favorably of this medicine, known almost universally to be a good and safe remedy for burns and other pains of the body. It is valuable not only for colds in the winter, but for various summer complaints.

The following is a schedule of the awards to be made under the first distribution. The items of Diamonds and other precious stones

The Adams Sentinel.

GETTYSBURG:

Tuesday, May 7th, 1867.

Our thanks are due to Hon. William F. Koorz, our Representative in Congress, for a copy of the Report of Select Committee of Congress on Internal Revenue Frauds. This is a subject of much interest, as there has been "ever so much" of that kind of work done lately.

Speaker Colfax's Lecture.

Our reader will bear in mind that this celebrated Lecture will positively be delivered in Christ Church, Gettysburg, on Thursday evening next, at 7 o'clock. We anticipate a very full house, from the high reputation of the Lecturer.

Resignation of Rev. Mr. Carnahan.

It is with great regret we mention that the Rev. Mr. CARNAHAN, the talented and efficient Pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Gettysburg, gave notice of his resignation as Pastor of that Church, with a view to a new field of labor, which we learn is Pittsburgh or its neighborhood. The departure of Mr. CARNAHAN, will not only be a great loss and source of regret to his pastoral charge, but also to the community generally, where he has been known and most highly esteemed.

Change of Streets.

Among the enactments of the last Legislature was one appointing Commissioners to lay out a public street or highway from a point on the Harrisburg road north of Gettysburg to a point on Washington street opposite the College campus, and to close up parts of the Harrisburg road and also of the road leading to Muncieburg. The Commissioners under the Act are SAMUEL HEMBRE and ALEXANDER COOK, Esq's, and Col. HAMILTON LONGWELL.

Capt. NORMAN has just returned from the city with a large and varied assortment of Spring and Summer Clothing, of the latest patterns and styles. He has also laid in a large supply of hats of the latest fashions—silk, fur, wool, and straw hats—for men and boys. Now is the time to buy your summer goods, and Norm's is the place to get them.

The Gettysburg Asylum.

The Legislature of this State, at its late session, incorporated "The Gettysburg Asylum for Invalid Soldiers," the purpose of which is to erect a comfortable Home for wounded and disabled soldiers of the late war, on the battlefield of Gettysburg. The requisite land, thirty acres in extent, has been already secured, and it is now proposed to raise the necessary funds for the buildings, by a grand Fair Enterprise. Upon receipt of $8,000 subscriptions of $5 each, there is to be a distribution of awards, consisting principally of Diamonds of great value, and of Government Bonds.

Another horse was stolen from a farmer in Germany township, Adams county, near the Maryland line, being the third one taken near Hanover, within the past week or two.

We learn that iron ore has been developed on the farms of Mr. Abner Flury and John Bowman, near Hanover, and that preparations are being made to open shafts, and test the quality of the ore.

Hon. THADDEUS STEVENS, who has been detained at Washington since the adjournment of Congress by indisposition, had recovered sufficiently to leave for his home on Wednesday last—which he did in a special car furnished for the purpose by J. D. Cameron, Esq., President of the Northern Central Railroad.

It is generally hoped, that the veteran Statesman may be fully recovered during the summer for the future before him.

Tax on the Notes of Towns, Cities or Municipal Corporations.

W. BLAIN & Son, Importers of Queenware and Wholesale Groceries, South End, Carlisle, Pa.

We offer to the public a large assortment of Glassware at nearly 50 per cent reduction on former prices.

Conc Oil Lamps, Chandeliers, Hall Bracket and Stand Lamps, Looking Glasses, Table Furniture, &c., at greatly reduced prices.

Southern Famine Relief Fund.

The Executive Committee on Collections and the Committee on Distribution of the Southern Famine Relief Fund, of Philadelphia, having determined to organize auxiliary associations, have appointed the following citizens to act in Adams county:

Hon. Edw. McPherson, Hon. Jno. McClellan, Rev. J. A. Warner, Hon. J. B. Danner, R. G. McCleary, Esq., George Swope, Esq., D. McCaughey, Esq., J. T. McClellan, Esq., Rev. Dr. S. S. Schmucker.

An application was made on Wednesday Judge Underwood, of the U. S. District Court at Alexandria, Va., by the counsel of J. H. Davis, for a writ of habeas corpus in his behalf, and the same was granted, returnable before the Circuit Court of the District of Virginia on the 12th inst., at Richmond. It is understood that the object of the writ is to get Davis before the Court, with a view to his immediate trial and discharge. His counsel professes to have assurance from the Secretary of War that General Burton, the commandant at Fortress Monroe, will obey the writ and that the prisoner will be delivered to the civil authorities.

Normal School.

Our energetic County Superintendent, AARON SHEELY, Esq., has now his Normal School in successful operation. The number of students at present we understand is forty-five, with the prospect of several accessions.

M. S. has neatly fitted up the school room adjoining the Public School, on High street, for his purposes, and everything in connection with the school bears the marks of efficiency and success. The pupils have formed themselves into a literary association, which meets once a week, the exercises being of the character usual in such societies. A MS. periodical, the Normal Educator, is an interesting feature of the meetings, which, we learn, are not to be open to the public, except upon special invitation.

Sudden Death.

We learn from the Hanover Citizen that Mr. Andrew Jan, of Oxford township, this county, died very suddenly, on Thursday week, of apoplexy. His age was about 60 years.

Secretary McCulloch gives notice that the Government cannot and will not undertake to protect parties who have lost coupon bonds payable to bearer, or Treasury notes issued in blank, and hereafter they will be paid to the party presenting them, and no attention will be paid to certificates which may be filed to prevent payment.

The workings of the Treasury for the month just closing will show another large reduction of the National debt. In the next statement Secretary McCulloch hopes to reduce the total debt to about twenty-five hundred millions, at which point he believes it must remain stationary, so long as the present rate of Government income and expenses is maintained. The Indian war will draw largely on the national resources this summer, and while the course of the Treasury is perfectly easy and clear, the reduction of the national debt must soon be suspended for a time at least.

The History of the Secret Service During the Rebellion.

By General L. C. Baker, late Provost Marshal and Chief Detective of the War Department. Philadelphia: P. Gannett & Co.

The appearance of this deeply interesting history will no doubt take many people, both North and South, by surprise. For we know that a large portion of the community have been laboring under the idea that the labors of the secret service would never, on any account be made public. But here we have them in full, and from the pen of no less a person than General Baker himself. From the nature of the subject, the volume is the most interesting one that has ever appeared in this country, and will be read by all classes, North and South, with an eager curiosity and deep interest. Of course the late Chief Detective of the all-powerful War Department of the United States, makes many strange revelations. He spares neither high nor low, Loyal or Rebel, civilian or military leader; he evidently set out to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth—and he has done it. It reads more like a romance than a history, but history it is, literal and matter of fact, with flanks of official vouchers which it is simply impossible to turn.

The Secretary of State—How long since you left Japan?

Mr. Tomogoro—Two months.

The Secretary of State—is this your first visit to America?

The Commissioner—No, sir; I came here seven years ago with the Embassy sent at that time by his Majesty, the Tycoon. I am very happy to make your acquaintance at this time. I take the liberty to express to you the best wishes of his Majesty, the Tycoon, for the health of the President of the United States as well as that of the Secretary of State, as for the welfare of the American nation. His Majesty further desires that the relations which already exist between the two countries shall increase.

Mr. Seward—It has always been our endeavor to make the relations between the two countries mutually beneficial and that is the wish of the President of the United States.

I hope that our Minister in Japan is appreciated as being a good interpreter of the friendly sentiments of the satrap. I suppose the Commissioner will have some time to spend in Washington?

Mr. Tomogoro—We design staying sufficiently long to enable us to execute our mission.

The Secretary of State—One of the first and most pleasant duties that I shall have to perform will be to introduce the Commissioner to the President of the United States. I will do so, if it is agreeable to them, on Friday, at half past 11 o'clock.

Mr. Tomogoro—We will be happy, indeed, to be presented to the President of the United States, and will avail ourselves of the kindness of the Secretary of State.

The Commissioner then read in the original the credentials of the Commissioner given by the Gorogio in behalf of his Majesty, the Tycoon, and Japan.

The Secretary of State said—You have an armistice in your country now. I hope the war will soon be at an end.

Mr. Tomogoro—I am very happy to hear your words, and will explain them to the Commission and will convey them to his Majesty, the Tycoon.

The Secretary of State—Do you know General Van Valkenburg?

Mr. Tomogoro—I know him very well. He is a good friend of our country.

The Secretary of State then inquired as to the number of people in Yeddo, and the Commissioner replied that there were about 3,000,000.

The Secretary of State—They take no formal census or enumeration of the people in your country, I believe? The question was evidently not understood.

The Chief Commissioner—The population of Japan is about thirty millions.

Mr. Seward then turned to a large geographical globe standing by and inquired if they used the globe in their schools.

The Commissioner—Yes, sir; but we have smaller ones than that. The Secretary then indicated upon the globe the position and outlines of Japan, and asked if that resembled their country, to which the Commissioner replied in the affirmative.

The Secretary of State—We have been bug-ting territory not for us, Japan.

Mr. Tomogoro—Sir, and we are glad of it, because it brings the two countries close together.

Being asked how they liked their quarters in Washington, the Chief Commissioner replied that they were well pleased, and were grateful to the Secretary of State for the care which he had taken in providing for their comfort. The interpreter, a young man, was asked if he had ever been in the United States before. He answered that he had not, but that he had learned the language at the United States Legation in Japan.
